WINOOSKI PARK, VERMONT VOLUME 4 NUMBER 9 NOVEMBER 18, 1950

Yearbook Dedicated to Fr. Sullivan

Dedication (above) of the Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima. The blessing was given by Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, president of St. Michael's College. This is the gift of the class of '50.

Our Lady's Grotto
A Lasting Memorial

Last Thursday, St. Michael's College observed President's Day and the Feast of St. Edmund by dedicating a new outdoor shrine to Our Lady of Fatima. The shrine is a gift of the Class of '59.

Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., president of St. Michael's, gave the principal address at the dedication.

"We who are sons of St. Michael know," Fr. Lyons said, "that even an angelic disposition is no guarantee of peace. St. Michael himself was a great archangel, yet he had to fight when His Creator was defied. Today, modern Lucifers are challenging everything we hold dear and sacred. Certainly, then, we, too, must be willing to fight.

"A willingness to fight, however, is not incompatible with a will for peace. We all want peace, and that is why we are all here today to ask Mary's heavenly intercession, and to hear her message."

For a time, it appeared that the scheduled dedication might have to be postponed. The shrine was completed, but the Italian marble itself was still on the high seas. A call to Rev. Manuel Rocha, pastor of Our Lady of Fatima church in Ludlow, Mass., located a statue of Our Lady of Fatima. Fr. Rocha offered the use of the statue until the one destined for St. Michael's arrives.

Timothy Murphy, Wevertown, N. Y., Student Council president, and Augustus F. Contant, Jr., Newport, R. I., chairman of the shrine committee, drove to Ludlow and obtained the statue.

Speaking of the message given by the Blessed Virgin when she appeared to the Portuguese children at Fatima, Fr. Lyons said the message "is really an ultimatum. It says that if certain conditions are not met, Russian atheism will spread through the entire world; that it will conquer every nation, that it will cause good people to be persecuted; that it will make the Pope suffer; and, in the final struggle, annihilate several nations."

The conditions, to be met, he said, are that enough people pray. An act of consecration to Our Lady of Fatima was recited by 1000 Michaelmen who heard Fr. Lyons laud the Class for its appropriate gift.

Contant spoke for the Class of '50 and James Barry, senior class president, spoke for the student body.

The day was a holiday with no classes following the High Mass which Fr. Lyons celebrated in Austin Hall. A solemn procession with faculty and seniors in cap and gown moved from Austin Hall to the site of the statue.

"Our Lady of Fatima," the currently popular melody was sung by the college choir under the direction of Rev. John M. Faustina.

3-Year College Course Starts in February

St. Michael's College will again see Freshmen entering in February, according to information released by Mr. Thomas A. Garrett, Registrar. The fact that an entering class is being admitted has already been advertised in leading national magazines and periodicals.

Letters have been sent out to high school principals informing them of the February admission.

UNCLE SAM

The purpose of the College in undertaking this plan is to give high school boys who are graduating this January, a chance to get as much college education as possible before being called to serve in the armed forces.

Those entering in February will be allowed to go on an accelerated program, details of which will be announced at a later date. Students now in session should take advantage of this information by recommending friends who will be ready for college at this time or by informing their friends that St. Michael's will be prepared to give them an opportunity to continue their education without delay.

SMALLER CLASS

The class will be smaller than that which entered in September. Mr. Garrett stated that not more than one hundred are expected. He stressed the fact that the main purpose of the program is to help the student to obtain as much education as possible before going into service.

Honored By Seniors In Close Election

The annual dedication of the Yearbook by the seniors took place on November 6. In a close race between various members of the faculty, Father Sullivan proved to be the popular choice of the class of '51.

Born in 1912, in Fair Haven, Vt., Father Sullivan attended St. Anne's Academy in Swanton for three years, and then entered St. Michael's College in 1929. After his sophomore year he returned for a year to Swanton, entering the Novitiate, where he commenced his spiritual training for the priesthood.

In 1932, he was again a student at St. Michael's in the attire of a religious brother, and graduated at the head of his class in 1934, with his A.B. degree. Following his graduation, he began his studies in theology at the major seminary in Putney, and was ordained in June 1938. During 1938-39, he attended graduate school at Catholic University and graduated with his M.A. in the Classics.

WELL ROUNDED EDUCATOR

In 1939, he joined the Classics Dept. at St. Michael's College, and in 1942, he was appointed Dean of Studies. During the summer he took courses in science till 1944, when he entered Fordham University Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, on a full scholarship in Biology. In 1946, he assumed the role of lecturer in Embryology at Fordham. He continued his studies at the Marine Biological Laboratory in Woods Hole, Mass., and received his Ph.D., in Biology from Fordham

Now Hear This!

All students are allowed to leave school after their last classes on the morning of the twenty-second. The last class of the morning is defined to mean that no class before eleven-fifteen on that morning may be cut. All classes which begin after twelve noon are considered as afternoon classes.

Father DuPont has further informed the MICHAELMAN that all students are expected to be back at eight p.m. on the night of November twenty-sixth.

If a student is absent from the last class meeting of a course, without valid excuse, he will be dropped from that course and a grade of FA (Failure due to Absence) will be entered on his permanent record. This rule also applies to the first meeting of a class after a major holiday. Excuses for absence from these classes may be given only by the Dean of Studies.

Night of Knights Opens This Monday

Once again the familiar echo of "curtain going up" will ring throughout the lobby of the Burlington Memorial Auditorium. On Monday night, November 20, at 8:30, the concerted efforts of talented and charitable Michaelmen will be displayed en masse for the benefit of the Burlington Boys' Club and other charitable institutions in the area.

Prior to this showing, there will be a complete dress rehearsal Sunday night for the benefit of the children of St. Joseph's Orphanage, the Burlington Home for the Blind and the Paralysis victims of the nearby hospitals. On Friday afternoon, there will be a huge parade in downtown Burlington including floats, comic characters on horseback and three military bands.

OUR BOYS

There will be a continuity of plot running throughout the show. The performances will include vocals by Jack Duggan and Connie Flynn; nimble dance routines by Julian LaFlamme; song fests by the Glee Club and Mixed Chorale; specialties by the Arabian Knights and the College Band; Novelty numbers by Joe O'Connell, Jack Duggan and Ronnie Brady; comedy routines by Art Coggio and Mickey Pasco and the tempting rhythms of an Africo-Cuban combo.

THE BOSSES

Those in charge of production are Prof. Cornelius Hannigan, producer and director; John Swift, student chairman; John Scrabulis, chorus director; Frank Lennon, chief script writer; Dennis Scanlon, stage manager and Howie Lancour and Charles St. Jacques, accompanists. It will be a show of exceptional worth and quality and a "must" on every Michaelman's agenda. So let's all get into the act on Monday night for a worthy cause.

A Good Friend

Just who is this Fr. Sullivan? The seniors have dedicated their Yearbook to him.

Many Michaelmen don't know Fr. Sullivan by sight. Most Art students think of him only as the Prof. who burns the midnight oil over in the Biology Lab. But as inconspicuous as Fr. Sullivan appears, he is a man of wider interests than most of us would ever realize.

Ballplayer, classics scholar, skier, Dean of Studies, head of the Biology Dept. - Fr. Sullivan has done much for the college - both because of his work within the Administration and because of the professional respect he has drawn in the research field.

A fine priest and a good teacher, - it is significant that the senior class - the first to vote on their Yearbook's dedication - should elect this versatile man.

It was heart warming also, that the working Brothers ran a close second in the dedication vote. It seems that their work does not go unnoticed down here.

We're glad of that!

We feel that the Brothers are as much a part of St. Michael's as any of the faculty.

No Shamrocks or Shillelaghs in this column - but we'll give a glance of approval to the senior class for their wise selections (both the winner - and the runner-up).

We think it is a good thing for a class to vote on their Yearbook dedication and we know that '51 made the most of it!

You Pay Your Money

It's nice to have readers and it's nice to have readers who send their MICHAELMAN home.

It's an old post office custom that requires postage on mail. The postal permit on the upper right hand corner of the front page does not permit us or anyone to mail a copy without postage. It enables us to get a special rate for bulk mailing.

All others, - and that means you, faithful reader, - have to put a two cent stamp on the MICHAELMAN.

Of course, you could get a subscription to the MICHAELMAN for the gir--folks at home, and we'd be very glad to pay the postage out of your three dollars.

MICHAELMAN NEEDS FRESHMEN

Our news staff needs hard working freshmen (also lazy ones) for reporters. Many attractive careers are open on the Editorial Staff. Never mind Uncle Sam, we need you too!

HILL WIND

By Ward Machesney

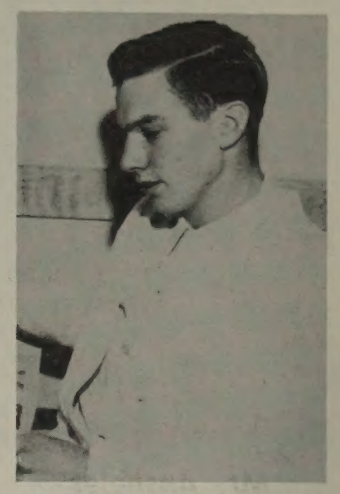
Most colleges have a class cut system. Some go as far to have no limit on cuts. What do YOU think of our "no cut" system?

RAY McNAMARA PITTSFIELD, MASS.

The whole system is foolish due to the fact that the student will take as many cuts as he can get away with. This varies with the individual professor, thus a student with a lucky choice of professors can have UNLIMITED cuts, whereas another gets none at all.

ROBERT LESCH SALEM, MASS.

The system should be modified. The no cut system is a means of compelling the student to go to class in order that he may learn. This has its good points, but a student in college should not have to be forced to learn. He should study of his own accord or he should not be in college.



GENE GEARY LOWELL, MASS.

I believe that a person going to college not to cut classes but to prepare himself for the future. For this reason I feel that the administration is making a mistake in their no cut system. It stands to reason that the people who cut excessively are not cheating the administration, but themselves

The MIKE

By Ralph Diehl

Through a tongue-in-cheek survey of a good cross-section study of the student body, it was learned that many members of the faculty can be recognized by their pet expressions which they repeat many times during the course of their lectures. There are, of course, names known or unknown to the faculty by which they are refered to, but that will be left to the students themselves.

What the concern of this column is at this time is whether or not the students can readily identify the particular faculty member by his favorite expression.

Here is the list as compiled by the survey. Try to match the expressions in the first column with the names in the second. Good hunting and I'm tired of living anyway!

Introducing

Mr. Ansheles

By Ralph Kistner

The sociology department benefits this semester with the addition of Professor Robert Ansheles to its staff. His presence here is not that of a stranger, for, it was not many years ago that he too attended St. Michael's as an undergraduate.

While at St. Michael's he distinguished himself both academically and in the field of sports. He captained the tennis team for three consecutive years and in 1942 won the title of ' State Intercollegiate Champion.' It was by virtue of his tennis ability that he later was chosen to coach the freshman tennis team at Seton Hall University. At St. Michael's he also gained recognition as a member of the basketball and baseball squads.

Upon graduation in 1946 Ansheles moved on to Seton Hall College in South Orange, New Jersey, where he received his M.A. in Sociology and spent several years teaching.

AN ORGANIZER

At Seton Hall he was very active both in and out of the classroom. He organized the Sociology program at Seton Hall, putting more stress on expanding beyond the classroom, making field trips to various state and private institutions and actual participation by the student in community work. It is this type of program which he in time hopes to introduce here at St. Michael's.

LECTURED ON ANTI-COMMUNISM

During his stay in New Jersey Ansheles was appointed to the Orange and Maplewood Social Welfare Council. He has also done a great deal of lecturing on anti-communism both in New Jersey and Vermont.

Professor Ansheles has done a great deal of constructive work in interracial relationship, and while at Seton Hall he served on the Interracial Council, an organization well known in the metropolitan area for its work in this field.

At present he is residing in Burlington. He originally came from Staten Island, but moved to Vermont at a very early age, and now claims West Rutland as his home town.

Just What the Doctor Ordered

From wheel-chair to wedding march was the order of the day for Ray " Mike" Dunn when he and Kathrene Dee were united in marriage November 11, at the Corpus Christi Church in New York City.

A few weeks ago " Mike" was pictured in a wheel-chair at the U.V.M. - St. Mike's game, this week he and his wife are a picture of marital bliss. " Mike" and " Kay," natives of Lenox, Mass., and Yonkers, N.Y., respectively, will live at 12 Central St., Essex Junction.

Many congratulations and shamrocks to the married couple and the best of luck for the future.

Debate Team Contests

The fifth annual U.V.M. Invitational Debate Tournament was held in Burlington last Friday and Saturday with representatives of forty-eight colleges participating. St. Michael's was represented by the highly successful negative team of William Hindle and David M. Mullin who won three out of their four debates, defeating: Princeton, M.I.T. and Brooklyn College, losing only to Hamilton College.

Robert Gelinas and John Chachere along with A. J. Scanlon represented the Michaelmen on the Affirmative side of the national debate topic: " Resolved, that the Non-Communist Nations of the World should form a New International Organization."

WELL PREPARED

Prof. Edward Murphy, moderator of the Newman Debating Society, ably prepared both teams with the material they correlated for their constructive and rebuttal speeches.

After the tournament a banquet was held in the Waterman Building, where such notable schools as West Point, Penn State, and Georgetown along with the women colleges of Mount Holyoke, Wellesley and Smith were represented.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the tournament was not to point out a single winner but to help the debaters to improve their speech techniques as presentation, style and the formation of material.

Now that the tournament is over the novices are preparing for the Dartmouth Tournament on December 9, which is to be held at the Hanover campus. John Lawlor, Bernard Hermanns and John O'Conner are but a few of the many who are preparing the national topic: " Should the American People Reject the Welfare State?"

Football Dance

(Above) The action at the height of the Football Dance in Austin Hall last Wednesday evening ... Dancing to the Arabian Knights' rendition of " We'll Build A Bungalow," under the direction of Bill Cofrances.

St. Michael's college gridsters, third ranking team in New England, had a chance Wednesday night to show how they shine on the dance floor. The team was the guest of the St. Michael's Outing Club at the annual Football dance in Austin Hall.

Honor guests were the seven seniors on the squad: Ed Krupinsky, Dick Klaess, Jim Whitlock, Joseph Hermans, Harry Young, Bill Zimolka and Andy Scheer.

The Arabian Knights orchestra, led by Bill Cofrances, provided the music for dancing from 9-12.

The seven seniors received special tickets to the St. Michael's Winter Carnival in February from William O'Hearn, president of the Outing Club.

George Kieswetter was student chairman in charge of the dance.

Students Help Carmelites

For the benefit of the Carmelite Sisters, four St. Michael's students donated their time and effort by helping the Sisters establish their new home in Williston, Vermont.

The four students, Joseph Corrigan, Jack Kilkeary, Jack Calnan, and Steve Hennessey, all freshmen, first heard of the Sisters' plight when Father G.E. Larkin mentioned that the convent was in need of a painting, but, that the Sisters lacked the necessary funds to engage a painter.

The Sisters, who originally came from the Bronx, N.Y., established themselves in Williston on the request of the Very Rev. Edward F. Ryan, Bishop of Burlington, and are the first order of its kind to settle in Vermont.

HELP NEEDED

The Carmelites plan on opening the convent for public inspection sometime in the spring, but until then there is much work to be done. The need for help is great and Michaelmen, here is a chance to perform a real act of charity. Anyone interested is requested to contact Joe Corrigan in Old Hall 329.

Piscione Drives Hoop Hopefuls

Early this week the official announcement was made that Bill Piscione would coach the St. Michael's Freshman basketball team. The candidates for this year's team were called out last Wednesday evening.

Bill came to St. Michael's as assistant football coach three years ago after a winning season at St. Bernard's High School in Fitchburg, Mass. He is also the supervisor of buildings and grounds and last year coached the Varsity hockey team and the championship Golden Gloves boxing team.

Coach Piscione is a native of Everett, Mass., and first showed his football prowess there. He was recently selected to the All-Everett High School football team. He attended Villanova College where he captained three teams in his senior year: football, track and hockey. Bill followed this up with five years of professional football, two of them with the Boston Yanks.

Bill is noted for producing well conditioned teams and we have no doubt that he will produce an always hustling freshman basketball team.

Pucksters Out; Greet Fr. Larkin

Fr. Garrett B. Larkin, director of Intra-Murals, and mentor of the hockey squad, warmly greeted 17 varsity aspirants in their initial get-together last Monday. The " padre," in simple parlance, announced that the Knights sextet will face a rough 15 game schedule and conditioning would be thoroughly stressed before any skating sessions take place. Ten of last year's seasoned veterans were on hand and all expressed their beliefs, this is the year which will bring St. Michael's the same prestige that both Dartmouth and Boston College now enjoy around the New England College hockey circles.

Included among last season's veterans are Co-captains Jim " the rocket" Feloney and Jack Conway, Tom Duggan, Al Fecteau, Jim Buckley, Bob " Bells" Belliveau, Dick Gleason, Ed Magner, and Lloyd Nolan.

During the last campaign Feloney caged 18 goals coupled with 18 assists for a total of 36 points. Fecteau, a newcomer to St. Michael's hockey, was second to the " Rocket" with 15 goals and 13 assists for 28 points. Smooth skating, Jack Conway another stalwart in the Larkinmen forward wall, netted 8 goals and 14 assists for 22 markers. In all the tower of strength came from the sticks of Feloney, Fecteau, and Conway who garnered 86 of the team's 91 points.

Buckley, Gleason, Magner and Nolan were all " sophs" last year, and with this added experience tucked under their belts, they will be heavily counted upon to add the scoring punch which could easily bring the Knights another state championship.

Tom Duggan and John McIntyre are both seniors who should bow out of the collegiate hockey circles in a blaze of glory. Tom has been around the " boards" a long time and along with his chores on the varsity Duggan will aid Fr. Larkin with the Frosh defense men.

Portly Jim Brown returns to the hockey scenery after a year's layoff and, " Gentleman" Jim from Lynn, promises all he will be down to the 185 mark before the initial encounter. " Bells" Belliveau also finds the shedding of the " excess" a little hard, but " Woodie" Woodworth has put the net-minder's job at stake for stout " Bells."

Sophomores who will give the veterans a few worries include: Leo Conway, Wakefield, Mass.; Paul Balcom, Watertown, Mass.; Jack Igo, Cambridge, Mass.; and Tom McDonough, Waban, Mass.

Oldtime Boarder (to newcomer) " I say, old man - I don't think I'd touch the rice pudding if I were you - there was a wedding on this street yesterday."

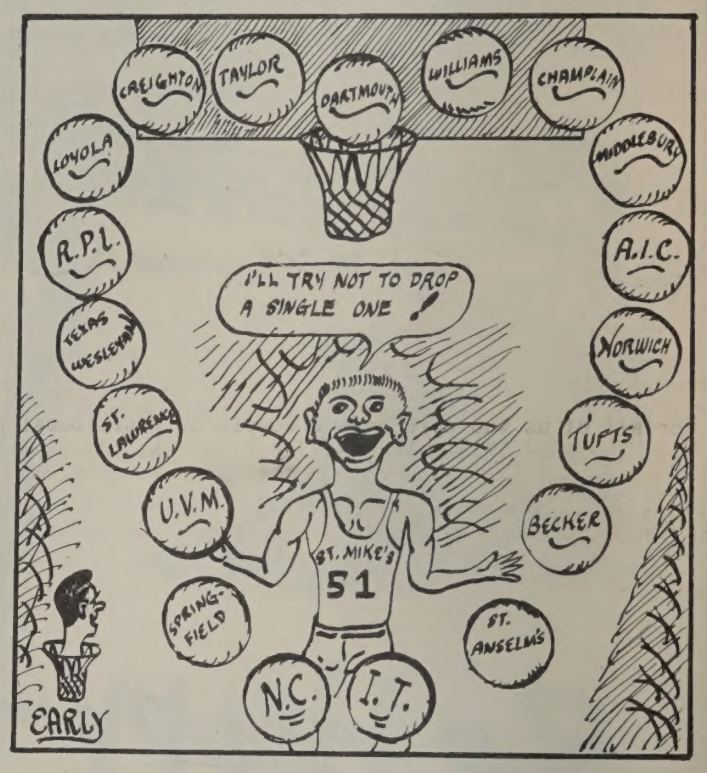
Loyola Visits Sunday Purple Heavy Favorite

The 1950 football season here at the Hilltop comes to a close Sunday afternoon when the Purple Knights take the field for the last time, with Loyola College of Montreal providing the opposition. The Knights will be a strong favorite to conclude their work with a victory, since Loyola, playing American-style football for the second year, has experienced plenty of rough going. Only a 28-14 win over small New England College saves the Warriors from an all-losing campaign. But even in that game they were far from impressive, yielding a total of 328 yards to the " Pilgrims." Other scores include losses to A.I.C. (44-13), Norwich (21-20), Champlain (20-0), Hofstra (63-6) and Bridgeport U., and a tied (7-7) New Bedford Textile.

Outside of these results not too much is known of the Canadians. Of the eleven men who started the St. Michael's game last year, only four are listed to begin tomorrow. They are quarterback Herb English, fullback Arnie Hannouch, tackle Igor Bossy and center Bill Gutilius. The remainder of the lineup will have Paul Dingle and Don Gagnon at ends, Jake Cook at the other tackle, Jack Curry and Rod Rousseaux, guards, and Andy Laliberte and Jack McMullen at halfbacks. McMullen is touted as being a better than average passer and the hopes of the Maroon and White seem to lie on his strong right arm.

The game will also end the playing collegiate careers of seven Jacobsmen who graduate in June. Ed Krupinsky, Jim Whitlock, Joe Hermans, Dick Klaess, Harry Young, Bill Zimolka and Andy Scheer will be wearing the Purple and Gold for the last time. Young, a staunch defensive end, has been named game captain.



Prof. - " What is the hardest thing to deal with?"

Student - " An old pack of cards."

Shamrocks and Shillelaghs are on the menu for today. The shamrocks, by all means come first, primarily, because the shillelaghs are hardly worth the precious space which I have afforded them.

So, shamrocks big and green as can be, go to the Gold Club at St. Michael's College. Now, no doubt many of you are in a state of confusion, and are wondering what my big mouth is again yapping about. So for clarity purposes only, I shall in a precise manner let you in on the know before passing out a few of my rare compliments. The Gold Club at the Hilltop are simply the third team, who, on the whole, have seen very little service on the gridiron during this campaign which is rapidly coming to a close. As a result of their limited action, they have been on the receiving end of very few honors.

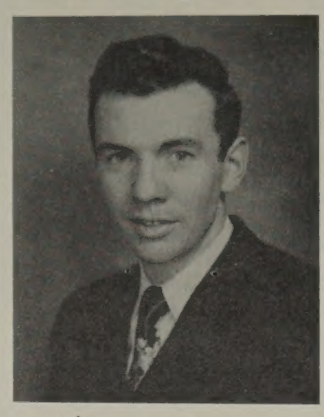
However, despite this, these men have played just as much a prominent role in the Knights grid machine, which has brought St. Michael's another championship team, as those stars who have reaped their deserving rewards.

Yes, guys like Donoghue, Scheer, Johnson, Jarvis, Zimolka and Woodworth have attended all the bone crushing scrimmages, skull practices and what not that goes into the combination of a winning ball club. So again I say to you pigskinners of the gridiron who have fought without glories "congratulations" on a job well done.

Shillelaghs this week are directed to the sports editor of the "Rumpus," I mean the "Campus" down at Middlebury. In last week's issue, (insert either of the above titles to your likeness), Nourse openly stated that Doc Jacob's sole desire for a Vermont Football Conference was based on the pecuniary angle. Now, I personally would like the guy to explain to me why the Athletic department down in that neck of the woods charged a buck a head this past season to witness their frosh football team in a trance.

For all of us who were here a couple of years back: Ted Burzenski, Weehawken, N. J., broke the all-time scoring record at St. Michael's in basketball with 300 points in 20 games. Burzenski broke a scoring record for the Burlington Memorial Auditorium with 32 points and then came back to net 26 in his next outing.

Introducing



Harry Young

By John Loughran

Harry Young, great Knight defensive end this season, receives the honor of captaining the team this Sunday against Loyola College in St. Michael's farewell to the '50 football season.

Young hails from Malone, N. Y., and attended Brushton High School. During his years at old Brushton High, "the Horse" excelled in football and basketball. Upon graduation Harry proceeded to join the U.S. Navy. Forsaking the "bell bottoms" in 1947 Young entered Champlain College, but transferred to St. Mike's in his sophomore year. Immediately he made his presence known and walked off with the golden glove middle weight championship. Harry showed his crown was no fluke by pulling a repeater last year.

Last season "young" Mr. Young was a defensive back, but "the Doc" saw more use for his valuable piece of timber so shifted the hard hitting rugged Young to an end berth. Harry has not let his mentor down this season and his defensive play during the Arnold tilt will long be remembered by all who watched "the Horse" perform.

This week "The Michaelman" staff salute Harry Young for his scholastic ability, his contributions to athletics at the Hilltop, and for his challenge to forsake the bachelorhood next week.

DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL

St. Michael's pride and joy, Bob LaForge, is going around proudly crowing, "I've just had a beautiful baby daughter."

Give the wife a little credit too, Bob!

Ah! Last Saturday will be a pleasant memory for the 1950 edition of St. Michael's footballers and fans. They will remember how the Purple Knights were going to Springfield, Mass., as underdogs for the second time. Previously they were trounced by Springfield College and now American International College, their opponents, was riding high with five straight wins and an average of 26 points per game.

Also memory will serve, that, the Knights upset the "dope" by beating the Aces, 19-14. A.I.C.'s loss to our Knights let some of the air out of today's tilt between the crosstown rivals: A.I.C. and Springfield. But the best thing about it was the fact that we had taken a most impressive victory.

The game was one of as many thrills as spectators. After a scoreless first quarter, Frank Simas climaxed an 80 yd. drive by skirting around end from the four to give the visitors a 6 point lead. A pass from Ken Casperson to Bob Kateley and drives by Jack Heggarty and Pete "Pistol" Plourde made the TD possible. Art Coggio's dropkick went wide of the mark, but the Jacobsmen led 6 to 0. The lead was short lived. As soon as the Yellow Jackets got the ball, they were touchdown minded. A pass from Salvucce to Ray Lukasiewicz evened the count and the point-after was made good by "Murph" Butova to give Chip Gannon's boys a 7-6 margin. Before the half ended another pass from Casperson to Kateley gave S.M.C. another 6 points. Coggio's conversion try was null and void; so, at the breather, it was St. Michael's - 12, American International - 7.

Realizing their winning streak was being jeopardized, the Aces came back roaring. "Cyclone" Salvucci, who ran all afternoon as though he had "hot ice" in his back pocket, took the kickoff and ran it back 43 yds. to the St. Mike's 42. Sal did most of the running towards paydirt, but it was signal-caller Stan Slaby who put the locals back into the lead with a score from the one,yard line. Butova's placement made the score 14-12 at the end of three quarters, with S.M.C. on the short end.

But like most stories, this has to have a good ending. It has! With Jack Heggarty running with the speed and stamina of a "stock car," and Frank Simas cracking the middle, Eddie Krupinsky was able to fire to Bob Kateley on the right flat a final touchdown pass. This time, Coggio's extra-digit try was good. Final score: S.M.C. 19, A.I.C. 14. What a victory!

Business Club Headed by Wall

The new St. Michael's Business Club held their first organizational meeting on Wednesday, November 8. The members elected officers and outlined a program for the coming year.

Those elected to head the club were, Pres. Dick Wall, Northampton, Mass., Vice-Pres. Jerry Hallinan, Plainville, Ct., Rec. Sec. John Britton, Waltham, Mass., and Sec.-Treas. Tom Sheehy, Long Island, N. Y.

The new club settled down to serious business at the initial meeting. Plans for the year include round-table discussions of economic interest, and the calling in of guest speakers from the business field.

The Business Club feels that it should have a particular interest for most students at the college, since the business field is currently attracting so many graduates.

Serving as moderator for the new organization is Mr. George Fortune, Instructor in Accounting at St. Michael's.

Club President Dick Wall has announced the next meeting for November 29, the first Wednesday after the students return from Thanksgiving vacation.

Mission Crusade to Aid Fr. Ziter's Boys' Club

Out of the sordidness and squalor of Selma Alabama's colored district, a highly successful Negro Boys' Club has arisen in the past five years due to the dreams, prayers, and hard work of Father Nelson Ziter, S.S.E. It is the giving of aid to this particular field of missionary activity that the St. Michael's Mission Crusade is seeking as its main project this year.

Off of the streets and out of the courts Father Ziter has brought the boys to his club to show them something of athletics, the finer arts, and a Christian way of life. His progress is indicated by the swelling of the original ten members five years ago to two hundred today.

Father Ziter has many dreams for expanding the size, activities, and usefulness of his clubs. This year, through the Mission Crusade, St. Michael's students will find ample ways in which to turn some of those dreams to realities.

Special Tickets

Tickets for the St. Michael's-Dartmouth basketball game at Barre on December 2, will go on sale Monday and Tuesday in the Athletic Director's office.

"Doc" Jacobs said that the game is not a home game and therefore tickets, all reserved, will be $1.50. The game is at 7:30 in the Barre Auditorium.

The first home game at which SAC tickets will be good is December 9 when Champlain comes to the Burlington Memorial Auditorium.

St. Michael's and Dartmouth were invited to put on the game as a benefit for the Twin City Trojans.

BIOLOGY HEAD

In 1947, Father Sullivan returned to his Alma Mater, to take charge of the Biology Department. He reorganized this department and advanced the credit system to a 32 point average for graduation. Consequently this enables the student to teach or attend graduate school immediately upon receiving his degree. The completion of the new science building in Feb. 1948, helped considerably in facilitating these changes. In 1943, Father Sullivan was awarded membership into Delta Epsilon Sigma, the Catholic Honor Society, which corresponds to Phi Beta Kappa in other colleges.

ATHLETICALLY MINDED

As a student Fr. Sullivan was active in sports as a member of the varsity baseball team and also the ski team. He helped build a ski jump which was used in the active winter sports program of the college at that time. When he returned to St. Michael's as a faculty member, he coached the tennis team in 1940, '41, '42. In the true sense he is a well rounded and versatile educator, a real credit to the school and to the collar he wears.
